

Join us for our
Friday, March 15 Family Business Mini-Conference
Leaving a Legacy of Meaning Amidst Love & Loss

Our 2019 Mini-Conference will feature Keynote speaker Bill Yoh, executive and third-generation owner of Day & Zimmermann, Philadelphia, PA!
Bill is also the author of the recently released Our Way.

Our 2019 Theme is Leaning into Crucial Conversations, an essential skill required for multi-generational family and business success!

At this Mini-Conference, you will learn:

- Crucial conversations Bill and his family have had within their 5 MOUNTAINS – their Family, Management, Board, Advisors, and Shareholders.
- Experiences of their family business successions through three generations and the current planning for Generation 4.
- How Bill's family created an enduring company culture where part of doing well is doing good in the community.
- How the loss of family members has impacted Bill's family and their business.

Member Table Talk:

You will have opportunities to learn from each other around relevant and thought-provoking questions.

Panel of Advisors Sharing How Real Family Businesses Moved through Challenges:

Learn from advisors about the crucial conversations family businesses need to have.

Bill will be available to sign copies of Our Way throughout the Mini-Conference.
