

David E. Griffith

Executive Director & Head Coach

Episcopal Community Services

225 South Third Street

Philadelphia, PA 19106

215 351 1413 (w)

215 840 8103 (c)

griffithd@ecsphilly.org

Abigail Meloy

Air Traffic Control

abigailm@ecsphilly.org

215 351 1457

Dave is currently the Executive Director and Head Coach of Episcopal Community Services in Philadelphia Pennsylvania. ECS's mission is to ask stakeholders to Look Up and Challenge Poverty and to do so with courage, capacity, and will. The focus of ECS is to address the issues of Intergenerational Poverty through stability, prevention and transformational impact programs based on leading-edge brain science that provides coaching and incentives to participants to achieve economic mobility. www.ecsphilly.org

Dave also serves as director and Chairman on the boards of The Modern Group, Ltd, Delaware Valley Floral Group, Hooper Inc., and Verus LLC., and as a director of Mountain Laurel Spirits LLC. His nonprofit interests include serving on the boards of the Philadelphia World Affairs Council, The Economy League of Philadelphia, Friends of Foundation Academy in Trenton, Victory Farms, and The Academy of Natural Sciences at Drexel University where he is currently governance chair and Chairman elect, effective 7/1/19 at which time he will also join the Drexel University Board. He is an advisor to the Caliper Corporation, IBM, and Journal of Social Innovation.

He is the former President and CEO of The Modern Group Ltd and remains Chairman. Before Modern, he was an executive with IBM and MCI. He is a former trustee and officer of The Westminster School in Simsbury Connecticut and a former director of the J J Haines Company. He is a past president of MHEDA, the Material Handling Equipment Distributors Association, and a past or current member of ARA, NAW, and the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities.

He is a nationally recognized speaker on the issues of Leadership, Governance, and Family Business. He is a guest lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania, Temple, and Rutgers. He is the author of the blog Muddy Boots, www.wearmuddyboots.com and a guest columnist at the Philadelphia Business Journal.

Dave is a strong advocate for the environment and the issues of poverty in America. He most recently keynoted on Poverty, Race, and Privilege at ECS 's forum on Justice and Opportunity and Westminster. He believes that we are all called to service and that the most powerful voice for change needs to be our own.

He is a graduate of Kenyon College and The Westminster School. At Kenyon, he received his BA with honors in Economics and History. While at Kenyon he played DIII Soccer and Lacrosse, volunteered with the local Fire Department and served as both an EMT and line officer and worked as a resident advisor. He is also a member of the Lambda chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon. He is a member of Lookaway Golf Club, Sea Oaks Beach and Tennis Club, The Union League of Philadelphia, Balsam Lake Club, Trinity Episcopal Church, St Peter's Episcopal Church, the Athenaeum of Philadelphia, and is a life member of Trout Unlimited.

He and his wife of forty years Jacqui have two adult children. Dave is an avid fly fisherman and flies tier, and all things being equal would rather be on the waters of the Beaverkill.

